December School Vacation Workshops 2008

Creative fun during school vacations for Children and Teens!

3-day School Vacation Workshops provide creative experiences during the December, February and April school vacation breaks. Workshops are 2 ½ hours long. December workshops will take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

CLASSES FOR GRADES K-1

Up, Up, and Away- In this mixed media workshop, students will use their imaginations and soar through the sky to create things that fly.

Ice Age Animals- Look out for the march of the paper mache penguins! Students will create sculptures and drawings of their favorite animals from the ice age.

CLASSES FOR GRADES 2-3

One Fish, Two Fish- Students will create their own sea life creatures exploring a variety of materials.

Clay Sculpture- Students will express their creativity by building sculptures of dragons and more.

CLASSES FOR GRADE 4-5

Look, See, Draw- Students will draw from observation using a variety of materials and techniques.

Pottery and Sculpture- Students will learn basic clay handbuilding techniques and be introduced to the potter's wheel.

CLASSES FOR GRADES 6-8

Wheel Throwing- Students will learn basic wheel techniques such as wedging, centering, and experimenting with basic forming.

Super Size It- Students will be inspired by the work of Claus Oldenburg and build their own large scale paper sculptures of their favorite foods.
