Opening Reception: Saturday, May 31st, 7-9 pm

The selection process for the Danforth Museum of Art's Annual Members' Juried Exhibition 2008 is now complete! This was a banner year for sheer creativity from a record number of member artists. We are thrilled to have seen the impressive art work of our vibrant community and to have met you all as you have brought in your work and visited the Museum.

This year, Carole Anne Meehan, Curator, at the ICA, Boston chose 78 works from 644 pieces of art submitted by 309 artists! As a way to celebrate the artistic talents of so many of our members, the Danforth staff has also selected almost 90 additional works that will be shown concurrently in our Community of Artists exhibition. Congratulations to all who have been selected and thank you to all our member artists who have participated!
