The selection process for the Danforth Museum of Art's Members' Juried Exhibition 2007 is now complete! The quality of entered work was very impressive. Nick Capasso, Curator, of the DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Garden chose 58 works from 373 pieces of art submitted by 174 artists! As a way to celebrate the artistic talents of so many of our members, we have selected nearly 100 additional works that will be shown concurrently in our Community of Artists exhibition. Congratulations to all who have been selected and thank you to all our member artists who have participated! A purchase prize will be awarded to one art work at the Spring Gala on June 9th.
Stay tuned here for more details.
