Museum of Art

Application for the 2010-2011 Teen Docent Program

Do you want to...

- Take free art classes?
- Feel confident speaking in public?
- Find out about creative careers?
- Get paid to work in an art museum?

Then apply for the Teen Program at the Danforth Museum of Art!

We are looking for fifteen high school students who will learn to give tours to children and families in the Museum, meet artists, assist with open houses and gallery events, take free art classes at the Museum School, and much more!

SUMMER TRAINING. You will be required to participate in training sessions from 10am-12pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from June 22 to August 12, 2009.

PAID INTERNSHIP. Once training is completed, you may choose to participate in a school-year museum internship, which comes with a stipend of $500.

To learn more, come to our Teen Docent Open House (Date to be announced. Please see website: www.danforthmuseum.org/teendocents.html)

Applying is easy!

- Complete the application and submit to the address below before May 14th.
- Interview at the Museum.
