Museum of Art

COMMUNITY
of ARTISTS

ANNUAL JURIED EXHIBITION CATALOG

JUNE 3 - AUGUST 5, 2012

JUROR'S STATEMENT

Once again Community of Artists showcases outstanding work by artists connected to the Danforth—proof that we need look no further than our own backyard to discover some of the best contemporary art being produced today. While other museums pursue a global focus, the Danforth is committed to artists living and working within its immediate community. According to research, more than one third of our members are working artists who regularly find themselves in our galleries, both on view and as insightful viewers of exhibits. They teach or enroll in our studio art classes or sell their work in the museum. Artists in fact define the Danforth. They are central to who we are and what we will be in the future.

Selections for this show were made after Juror Cody Hartley chose work for Off the Wall, and are meant to present a broad overview of the various styles and media submitted for jury. While Off the Wall represents Hartley's unique curatorial vision related to space, Community of Artists explores the vision of a growing number of diverse artists engaged with the Danforth. Paintings, drawings and prints are juxtaposed next to ceramics, woven fabric and basketry. Sometimes elements of each can be found in the same piece as a willingness to employ mixed media, which is increasingly seen, blurring lines between fine art and craft. Today's artists challenge the viewer to look beyond mere categories to consider the work itself.

Finally, it was an honor to work with Cody Hartley, whose painstaking and careful review--as well as a willingness to review and discuss selected works--resulted in two high-quality shows that we're proud to present. The sheer number of works submitted speaks to the vitality and strength of our cultural community. In 2012, we saw 477 artists submitting more than 1,400 works for review, and the uniformly high standard of these works made the process more competitive than ever. For Off the Wall, 103 works were selected from 80 artists, and for Community of Artists, 153 works were chosen from 136 artists. This provides us with two unique snapshots of the artistic landscape surrounding the Danforth.

Katherine French
2012 Juror for Community of Artists
Director, Danforth Museum of Art

KATHERINE FRENCH

Katherine French is currently the Director of the Danforth Museum of Art, in Framingham, MA where she has curated numerous shows. In 2007 she received an award for curatorial excellence for Joan Snyder, A Painting Survey, 1969-2005 from the New England chapter of the International Association of Art Critics, and was named Best Curator of Locally Made Art at the 2010 Boston Art Awards. Under her direction, the Danforth Museum of Art has been named an Outstanding Cultural Organization by the Massachusetts Arts Education Collaborative.

Community of Artists showcases 153 works from 136 artists selected from over 1,400 works submitted for jury consideration.
